Common sense security

- . Garage sales must always be held at or near your front gate— Never let a stranger into your “garage” or house.
- . Engrave & permanently mark your laptops, tablet computers, children’s expensive toys, power tools, sporting goods & expensive items.
- . If you hear a neighbours alarm & see suspicious people notify police immediately with a description or take a photo (if you can safely).
- . Criminals will often loiter & door knock to see if some one is home, elderly or vulnerable. BE AWARE.
- . Document shredders are great for protecting personal information destined for the rubbish, include all bank statements, bills & just about everything that has your name on it.
- . Change your locks when moving.
- . Fit deadlocks on windows & deadbolts on doors with keys left in or nearby in case of fire.
- . Lock your doors even when you are home.
- . Never leave your car running when unattended this is a common way to lose your car at the petrol pump or milk bar.
- . Check your bank & credit card statements very carefully every month.
- . Any special offer by phone, email, letter or in person that appears too good to be true probably is. Talk to friends family & neighbours before giving money to anybody- especially when under pressure or duress.
- . Treat your neighbours with kindness & sincerity.
